Dear [redacted]

Thank you for your letter of 10 October 1959 directed to [redacted]

Although we wrote to you on 9 October, you may not have received our letter since we used the address given on your Personal History Statement.

As we indicated in our letter of 9 October, we have completed our review of your application and regret that we have been unable to locate an opening appropriate to your qualifications.

We take this opportunity to express again our appreciation for your interest and to offer our regrets that our personnel situation is such that we are unable to take advantage of your interest.

Very truly yours,

G. M. Stewart
Director of Personnel
